A JUNIUS BIBLIOGRAPHY.

BY JOHN EDMANDS.

An attempt is here made to enumerate and describe, as fully as the means at command will allow, the editions of the letters of Junius, which have been published in England and in this country; and to point out the various publications relating to the history and the authorship of these letters.

If any apology were needed for this publication it may be found in the undoubted fact that the letters of Junius have exerted a wider influence than any other political publication of a like character, and have preserved a live interest, both from their intrinsic merit and their uncertain authorship, down to the present day.

The first of what have passed into literary history as the "Junius Letters," was printed in the Public Advertiser in London, on January 21, 1769. The letters were continued at irregular intervals during the three following years: the last one appearing January 21, 1772. The series printed in the edition which appeared in that year and which Junius is supposed to have authorized, but not edited, consists of sixty-nine letters. Of these forty-two bear the signature of Junius, sixteen that of Philo Junius, five that of Sir William Draper, three that of John Horne [Tooke], and three are unsigned. These last and those signed Philo Junius are understood to have been acknowledged by Junius as his own; making sixty-one that were written by him. Many other letters, written before and after this period, and with other signatures, have been printed and are with greater or less probability attributed to his pen.

The edition of the letters published in 1772, No. 30, is here taken as the standard, to which reference will be made in the descriptions; and it will be designated as the Junius Edition, or briefly as J. E. I have arranged the matter in two groups: I. Editions of the letters. II. Publications about Junius, including articles or parts of articles in periodicals and other works. In each group the chronological order has been followed as far as practicable.

On account of the peculiar circumstances under which the letters were published, and the large number of editions that have appeared, as well as the brevity and vagueness of many of the descriptions that have been printed, it has been thought proper to describe with unusual fullness the editions that have been personally examined. The Mercantile Library possesses the largest collection of the editions of the letters and of the works about Junius that is to be found in this country; to those that are in this Library the shelf marks have been added. Others which have been examined are designated by a star *. In other cases the libraries where the book may be found or the sources of information have been indicated.

Free use has been made of Allibone's Dictionary, of Bohn's edition of Lowndes, of Frey's list in Cushing's Initials, and of W. W. J., Bib. Cur., and E. Solly in Notes and Queries, 13: 185, 65: 287, 341: 463.

Much help has been derived from the catalogues of public libraries. Sincere thanks are here expressed to the authorities of the British Museum for an advanced sheet of their catalogue containing the article Junius; and to those of the Philadelphia Library, the Congregational Library at Boston, Yale University Library, Public Library of Cincinnati, Boston Athenæum, and Public Library of Southbridge, Mass., for the loan of copies of the letters, and to several librarians who have furnished information.

The measurements given are in inches, and apply to the printed page, without head-lines catchwords, and signatures. The usual size marks are used only by way of accommodation. The words, "The title is engraved," mean that there is no type title. Allibone gives a list of forty-two persons to whom the authorship of the letters has been ascribed: and Frey mentions fifty-one, including George III, with reference to one or more writers who have advocated their claims.

I. EDITIONS OF THE LETTERS.

1. The political contest; containing, a series of letters between Junius and Sir William Draper: Also the whole of Junius's letters to His Grace the D\*\*\* of G\*\*\*\*\*. Brought into one point of view. London: Printed for F. Newbery, the West-End of St. Paul's church-yard. [Price one shilling.] O. pp. 2 l. 1-55. 6 $\frac{5}{8}$ , 6 $\frac{1}{2}$  x 3 $\frac{1}{2}$  in. 40.39 l.
B. M. Closed case Ec. 4562

This is the first ed. and has no date. The second l. contains "To the public." There are fourteen letters, numbered in two series, I-VII each, of which thirteen answer to 1-12, 15 of J. E. The two letters of Philo Junius, 13, 14 of J. E., are not included. The last letter is dated July 8, 1769. Some of them have no date. The second series of letters has the heading, Junius's letters to the D*** of G*****. Woodfall [Ec. 4620. l. 1: *172] says this ed. contains fifteen letters. The ed. speaks of this as "their second appearance in print," but as is evident only with reference to their former appearance in "a common News-paper."

2. ———. Same.

When vice prevails and impious men bear sway,
The post of honour is a private station.—Cato.

The second edition. London: Printed for F. Newbery, the West-End of St. Paul's church-yard. [Price one shilling.] O. pp. I-IV, 1-55. Y. U.

3. ———. Same. The third edition. London: Printed for F. Newbery, the West-End of St. Paul's church-yard, and J. Smith, at No. 15, in Pater-noster-Row. [Price one shilling.] Where may be had the second part; Price 6d O. pp. I-IV, 1-55. 6 $\frac{5}{8}$ , 6 $\frac{1}{2}$  x 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ . 40, 39 l. B. M. Ec. 4563

The second l. contains the To the public of the first ed. compressed to make room for the a. which is dated Aug. 12, 1769. The title is a close copy of the first ed., but compressed to admit the two lines from Cato which appeared in the second ed. It contains the same letters as the first ed., numbered in the same way. This and the first ed. agree very closely; but there are differences as on pp. 18, 45, 46, 48, 51, which show that the matter was reset. In the a., which appeared also in the second ed., the ed., purposes to annex "whatever may flow from the masterly pen of Junius in the future, by way of supplement to this collection."

4. ———. Same. Also the whole of Junius's letter to the D*k*s of G*****n and B*****d. And his late letter on the rescue of a general officer. Dublin, 1769, O.

B. says "this is called the third edition, and is probably a reprint of the second London edition."

5. The political contest; Third edition Dublin; James Potts, 1769. O. pp. VII, 108. B. M

6. ———. Same. Containing Junius's letter to the K---; and Modestus's answer. Dublin, printed and sold by all the booksellers, 1770. O. pp. 24.
N. and Q. 65: 341

7. ———; Being a continuation of Junius's letters, from the 8th of July last to the present time, in which is included Dr. B——'s postscript on Mr. Wilkes's expulsion, and Junius's answer. Also Sir William Draper's last letter, with Junius's reply. Part II. London: Printed for F. Newbery, the West-End of St. Paul's church-yard. [Price six-pence.] Where may be had the 2d edition of the 1st part. [Price one shilling.] O. pp. 1 l. 1-38. 6 $\frac{5}{8}$ , 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ , 6 $\frac{3}{8}$  x 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ . 40, 39, 38 l. B. M. Y. U. Ec. 4563

Contains seven letters numbered VIII. to XIII in continuation of the second series of pt. I., two of them being numbered XI. They correspond with 16, 20, 18, 21, 23, 24 and 25 of J. E. Those of P. J. are omitted. Noticed in Mon. Rev. Oct. 1769. 41; 319.

8. A collection of the letters of Atticus, Lucius, Junius, and others. With observations and notes. London, 1769, O. B. M.

9. ———. Same. A new edition. Continued to the end of October 1769. London: Printed for J. Almon, opposite Burlington-House in Piccadilly. M.DCC.LXIX. O. pp. 1-44, \*45-\*76, 45-170. 6 $\frac{5}{8}$ -6x3 $\frac{5}{8}$ -3 $\frac{1}{4}$ . 41-33 l. B. M. v. 18 of E. 6692

The first l. has title and the second c., and on the reverse an a. as this day published, "A new and impartial collection of letters," to which these letters are "considered as a very proper appendix." The letters begin on p. 5 with that dated August 1768, and with the heading, "A collection of interesting papers. Being an appendix, &c." The letters of Junius begin on page 45, with No. 1 of J. E., and with the heading, "The correspondence between Junius and Sir William Draper . . ." including Nos. 1 to 30, excepting No. 28 and those of P. J. The letters are not numbered, and some of them have no date. Noticed in Mon. Rev. 41: 319.

10. ———. Same. Continued to the end of November 1769. London: Printed for J. Almon . . . M.DCC.LXIX. O. pp. 1 l. 5-44, \*45-\*76, 45-173. 6 $\frac{5}{8}$ -6x3 $\frac{5}{8}$ -3 $\frac{1}{4}$ . 41-33 l.

B. M. Closed case Ec. 4565

The first l. contains title and c. The a. is transferred to the reverse of the last l. The additional matter consists of a part of an answer by Modestus, and letters 32, 33 of J. E.

11. Critical memoirs of the times. London, (1769) 2 vol. O. E. 2045

Contains letters 1-9, 11 and 12 of J. E. The Squabbles of Junius and his competitors, and Draper's Defense of himself.

12. The freeholder's magazine; or monthly chronicle of liberty. By a patriotic society. London: Printed for Isaac Fell. 1769. Sept.-Dec. pp. 224. O. E. 3132

Contains letters 23-7, 30, 32-5 of J. E. It has po. of Wilkes, Glyn, Beckford and Horne [Tooke].

13. Interesting letters selected from the correspondence of Messrs Wilkes, Horne [Tooke], Beckford, and Junius. With anecdotes never before published. London, Nicholl, 1769, O. pp. 64. B.

"A Parody."

14. Two letters from Junius to the D—— of G—— (Duke of Grafton), on the sale of a patent place in the customs at Exeter. To which is added, a letter from Junius, containing an address supposed to have been made to a great personage. Taken from the Public Advertiser. London, printed and sold by all the booksellers in London and Westminster. December 1769, O. B.

15. A complete collection of Junius's letters' with those of Sir William Draper. London: Printed for A. Thomson, Pater-noster-row. MDCCCLXX. O. pp. 1 l. 1-151.  $6\frac{3}{8}$ ,  $6\frac{3}{8} \times 3\frac{3}{8}$ . 38, 37 l. B. M. Ec. 4568

Contains the first 36 letters of J. E., excepting No. 26 and those of P. J. They are numbered consecutively. Some of them have no date, and some have dates differing from J. E. The first letter is dated April 21st, and the 8th April 10. The eighth letter has the heading, "Junius's letters to the D*** of G*****". Following the last letter is the statement, "Any future productions of Junius shall be carefully collected and printed in the same size with these letters." B. says it appears to have been reissued in Mar. or Apr. with the letter of Mar. 19 (= 37); and again with the letters of Apr. 3 and May 28 (= 38, 39); and again on Sept. 6th with the letter of Aug. 22. (= 40). Bib. Cur., in N. and Q. 65: 282, mentions an ed. ending with the letter of May 28.

16. ———. Same. London: A. Thomson, 1770, O. pp. 177. B. M.

"A reissue, with additions."

17. Letters of Junius. Dublin, 1770, O pp. 108.

B. says this is a reprint of Almon, and that there were other Irish eds.

18. The Whisperer. London. Feb. & Mar' 1770, Nos. 1-7. v. 75 of Eh. 6692

Contains 37, 38 of J. E. Other letters are said to be contained in later numbers.

19. The Letters of Junius. [vignette.] London: Printed for J. Wheble, in Pater-Noster Row. MDCCCLXX, O. pp. 2 l. 1-232.  $4\frac{9}{16}$ ,  $4\frac{7}{16} \times 2\frac{5}{8}$ . 28, 27 l. Ec. 4570

Has cap of liberty vignette on the title. It contains the first 40 of the J. E. letters, excepting 7 by P. J. They are numbered, but not dated. On the second l. is an a. It is without c. or i. This appears to be Wheble's first ed.

20. \*Letters of Junius. London. Printed in the year MDCCCLXX, D. pp. 2 l. 1-247.  $4\frac{1}{2}$ ,  $4\frac{3}{8} \times 2\frac{5}{8}$ . 28, 29 l. B. M. Y. U.

Contains the same matter as 19, with the addition of letter 41 of J. E. The two agree very nearly, though there are proofs, as on pp. 42, 62, 102, 104, 113, of recomposition. This seems to be Wheble's second ed., though B. says the ed. without the name is the first. F. says the second ed. bore Wheble's name on p. 247; a blunder due to a misreading of B. B. M. has an ed. "without the advertisement," and also one with the imprint, London, 1770-1774. 2 v. D.

21. Two remarkable letters of Junius and the Freeholder, addressed to the K——. With answers and strictures . . . London: Printed, and sold by all the booksellers. M. DCC. LXX. O. pp. 2 l. 1-51.  $6\frac{1}{8} \times 3\frac{1}{4}$ . 37 l. Ec. 4563

Contains letter 35 of J. E. and the answer by Modestus.

22. The London Museum of politics, miscellanies, and literature. London. 1770.

Contains letters of Junius, replies to them, and other related matter.

23. The genuine letters of Junius. To which are prefixed anecdotes of the author. Piccadilly. London Printed in the year M, DCC, LXXI, O. pp. 4 l. 1-xx, 1-366.  $6\frac{7}{16} - 5\frac{5}{8} \times 3\frac{3}{8}$ . 27-25 l. B. M. Ec. 4572

Pp. I-XX contain the anecdotes, in which Burke is assumed to be the author of the letters. There are 50 letters of which 46 are in J. E., the last being 59 of J. E. and dated Oct. 5, but having here, Oct. 8th at the beginning and Oct. 5th at the end. It has four letters that are not in J. E. and those of P. J. are omitted. Some of the letters are dated at the beginning, others at the end; and in a few cases there are two dates. Letter 38 ends on p. 255, and 39 begins on p. 257; 256 being blank. Letters 39-50 occupying pp. 257-366 are not mentioned in c.; and these pages are in different type from the former part of the book. The last page has the catch word LET. This is therefore a second and an enlarged ed. B. M. has a copy privately printed, [Almon] London, 1771, O., which is probably the same as the above.

24. The Letters of Junius. London: W. Morison, 1771, O. pp. 114. B. M.

25. The Repository: or treasury of politics and literature, for MDCCCLXX. Being a complete collection of the best letters (including those of Junius) and essays. . . . London, Printed for J. Murray . . . 1771, 2 v., O. E. 7404

Contains 32 of the letters of J. E., the last bearing date Nov. 14, 1770: those of P. J. not being included. There are also two letters by Pro Rege et Lege characterizing the letters of Junius.

26. The Letters of Junius. London: John Wheble. 1771, O. B. M.

The title is engraved.

27. \*The Letters of Junius. Vol. I. [II.] London: Printed for JOHN WHEBLE, in Pater Noster Row. MDCCCLXXI, 2 v., D. pp. I-VIII, 2 l. 1-250. I-VI (error for IV), 1-272.  $4\frac{1}{16}$ ,  $4\frac{1}{2} \times 2\frac{5}{8}$ . 29, 27 l. Y. U.

The title is engraved. Contains d. c. and the 69 letters of J. E., excepting the first seven of P. J. There are also seven letters that are not in J. E. Several of the letters of PPILO [sic.] JUNIUS form a supplement following letter 69. This is a spurious, made up ed. Though bearing date 1771 it contains the d. which was not published till Mar. 1772, and the two letters of Jan. 21, 1772. It has also a letter to Apsley dated Feb. 1775. D. in N. & Q. 6: 261 says there were two ed. in 1771 with Wheble's name.

28. The Letters of Junius. First genuine edition. London, H. S. Woodfall, 1771, 2. v., D. N. & Q.

D. in N. & Q. 6: 224 says this is a spurious ed. not published by Woodfall, but by Wheble.

29. \*Junius. Stat nominis umbra. Vol. I [II]. London: Printed for Henry Sampson Woodfall, in Pater Noster Row. [n. d.] 2 v. D. pp. I-VII, I-XXXII, 1-208, 19 l.; 1-356.  $4\frac{7}{16}$ ,  $4\frac{1}{4} \times 2\frac{1}{2}$ . 28, 27 l. Y. U.

The title is engraved. Vol. 1 contains c. to vol. 1 and 2. d. pe. 29 letters and i. to both vols. Letters 30 to 69 are in vol. 2.

30. Junius: S. n. u. Vol. I. [II.] London: Printed for Henry Sampson Woodfall, in Pater Noster Row. MDCCLXXII. D. pp. I-XXXII, I-VII, 1-208, 19 l.; 1-356.  $4\frac{3}{4}$ ,  $4\frac{9}{16} \times 2\frac{5}{8}$ . 28, 27 l.

Ec. 4574

31. \*Junius: S. n. u. Vol. I. [II.] London: Printed for Henry Sampson Woodfall, in Pater Noster Row. MDCCLXXII. 2 v., D. pp. I-XXXII, I-VII, 1-208; 1-356, 19 l.  $4\frac{3}{4}$ ,  $4\frac{9}{16} \times 2\frac{5}{8}$ . 28, 27 l.

Y. U.

These, 29, 30, 31, are different issues of the ed. authorized by Junius. It contains the d. and pe. prepared by him, and the 69 letters. In its original form it did not contain either the c. or the i. Of the three issues that without the date is probably the earliest. In 29 and 30 the c. and i. are on the same kind of paper, but unlike the body of the book. The paper of 29 is much heavier, and of different finish from 30. The signatures in 29 and 30 occupy a different position on the page. Excepting the pe. the pages of the two issues contain the same matter. In 31 the c. and i. are on paper like the body of the book, and different from 29, 30. It seems clear that 29 and 30 were printed at different times, before the c. and i. were prepared, and that 31 was printed and issued afterwards. On the date of this issue see N. & Q. 6: 285, 383. 12: 22. It was noticed in Mon. Rev. for Mar. 1772, p. 259, and in Crit. Rev. Apr. 1772.

In this and in most of the subsequent eds. the letter of P. J. of May 22, 1771 is printed as a note to letter XX, and also in its chronological place as No. XLVI. In the eds. which have 68 letters this one is printed only as a note to XX.

32. The Letters of Junius. Dublin. Ewing, 1772. 2 vols., D. B. M.

B. says this is apparently a reprint of Woodfall's ed. containing d. pe. and 14 letters which are not in Woodfall's previous ed.

33. The London chronicle. London: 1769-72. 17: 587.

Many of the letters were printed here almost simultaneously with their appearance in the Public Advertiser. The "Dedication" was printed in the No. for March 5-7, 1772. The volumes contain much other matter pertaining to the subject.

34. Junius. S. n. u. Dublin: Printed for John Milliken, College Green, and Caleb Jenkin, Dame Street. M. DCC. LXXII. 2 v. D. N. & Q. B. M.

N. & Q. 16: 146, says v. 1 has pp. XXIV, 149, and contains d. pe. and 29 letters.

35. The Letters of Junius. Vol. I. [II.] London: Printed in the year MDCCLXXIV, 2 v. D. pp. 1. l. 1-247; 1 l. 1-236.  $4\frac{7}{8}$ ,  $4\frac{1}{4} \times 2\frac{5}{8}$ . 28, 27 l. Ec. 4576

Has nf., but not c. d. pe. or i. Contains 63 letters numbered continuously, including that on the Monody (x); and it has also following letter LXIII the first seven letters of P. J. "being omitted in the first volume." The later letters of P. J. are inserted in their proper place.

36. The Letters of Junius, with additions and explanatory notes. London: J. Wheble, 1775 2 v. O. Has engraved titles. B. M.

37. A Serious letter to the public on the late transaction between Lord North and the Duke of Grafton. By Junius. . . London: Hooper and Davis. MDCCLXXVIII. O. pp. 24. B., S.

B. says this is fictitious.

38. The Letters of Junius. . . . London: Printed in the year MDCCLXXIX. D. pp. 11. 1-286.  $5\frac{1}{2}$ ,  $5\frac{1}{8} \times 3$ . 42-40 l. B. M. Ec. 4577

Contains the same letters as 35, arranged in the same way.

39. \*The Letters of Junius. Complete in one volume. A new edition. S. n. u. London: Printed in the year 1783. D. pp. 1-393.  $5\frac{9}{16}$ ,  $5\frac{7}{16} \times 3$ . 39 38 l. B. M. St. Louis M. L. P. L.

Contains c. d. pe. nf. i. and 69 letters. Has no name of publisher or printer. A poor ed. with many typographical errors, as on pp. 272, 284, 352, 359.

40. The Letters of the celebrated Junius. A more complete edition than any yet published. In two volumes. Volume I. [II.] London: Printed in the year M. DCC. LXXXIII. 2 v. D. pp. 1-XII, 1-263; I-VIII, 1-315.  $5\frac{1}{4} \times 2\frac{5}{8}$ . 31 l.

B. M., Y. U. Ec. 4578

It contains the 69 letters of J. E. and 14 others "written by Junius, or letters to which he has replied." In an a. the ed. claims to have restored important omissions in the author's ed. The letter of P. I. of May 22, 1771, is printed as an independent letter immediately after XX of J. E., and omitted in its chronological place. It has numerous and extended notes not in previous eds. J. Taylor in N. and Q. 11: 117 attributes the editorship to Francis.

41. The Letters of Junius. Complete in one volume. A new edition. S. n. u. London: Printed in the year M. DCC. LXXXIV. D. pp. 1-393.  $5\frac{5}{8}$ ,  $5\frac{3}{8} \times 2\frac{7}{8}$ . 39, 38 l. B. M. Ec. 4580

Contains c. d. pe. nf. i. and 69 letters dated and numbered as in J. E. Letters LXVI and LXVII are printed XLVI and XLVII. In the last line of page 5 Camden 364 occurs for Camden 365.

42. The intrepid magazine. London: 1784. B.

"Has letters signed Junius, &c."

43. The Letters of Junius. Complete in one volume. A new edition. With a copious index. S. n. u. London: Printed in the year 1786, D. pp. 1-394.  $5\frac{5}{8} \times 3$ . 39 l. B. M. Ec. 4582

A close reprint of 41. The letters begin on p. 29 instead of 28 as in that ed., and there are variations as on pp. 93, 4, 160, 1, 280, 1, which show a recomposition.

44. The Letters of Junius. London, J. Beaty. 1787, D. B. M.

45. The Letters of Junius. . . . Dublin, 1787 2 v., D. Manch. Free Lib.

46. The Letters of Junius. Complete in one volume. A new edition. With a copious index. S. n. u. London: M. DCC. LXXVIII. D. pp. 1-394.  $5\frac{5}{8} \times 3$ . 39 l. B. M. Ec. 4584

Nearly identical with 43; but there are variations as on pp. 43, 57, 58, and 93, which show that it was reset.

47. The Letters of Junius. New edition with a copious index. Lond. (no publisher's name) 1788, D. pp. 394. B., M., B.

48. The Letters of Junius. 1789, D. B.

49. The Letters of Junius. A new edition. With a copious index. S. n. u. London, 1791. D. pp. 1-403.  $5\frac{1}{8} \times 3$ . 36 l. B. M., Ec. 4586

Contains c. d. pe. nf. i. and the 69 letters.

50. Lettres de Junius, traduites de l'Anglois [by J. B. Varney.] Paris, 1791. 2. pt. O. B. M.

A JUNIUS BIBLIOGRAPHY.

BY JOHN EDMANDS.

76. The Letters of Junius. In two volumes. Vol. I [II.] A new edition. S. n. u. [Vignette.] London: Printed by C. Whittingham . . . For Vernor and Hood . . . 1800. 2 v. D. pp. I-XXXII, I-266, 1 l; I-IV, I-288.  $4\frac{5}{16} \times 4\frac{1}{16}$ ,  $2\frac{3}{8}$ . 30, 29 l. B. M. Ec. 4600

The vignette has a bee hive. Contains c. d. pe. nf. i. and 69 letters. Has po. of Blackstone, Grenville, Bedford, Draper, North, Bute, Tooke, Chatham, Mansfield and Camden; engraved by Ridley and published by Vernor & Hood, April 1st, 1798. Directions for placing plates is at the end of vol. 1. This is a l. p. copy, front and bottom uncut, measuring  $8 \times 5$ .

77. Junius. S. n. u. Vol. I. [II] London: Printed by T. Bensley . . . for Vernor & Hood . . . 1801. 2 v. O. pp. 1 l. I-XXXV. I-274. I-V. 1 l. I-318.  $5\frac{1}{8}$ ,  $5\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{1}{8}$ . 26, 25 l. Closed case Ec. 4596a

Has also engraved titles with vignette as in 64, and dated 1797. Contains c. d. pe. nf. i. and 69 letters, and the po. named in 64 and 66. "Published by Vernor & Hood, April 1st, 1798." Has head and tail pieces as in 66. "Directions for placing the cuts" to both vols. is in v. 2. This copy is in boards, uncut.

78. The Letters of Junius, with notes by Robert Heron. London: Harrison, 1801. 2 v. O.

Bib. Cur. in N. and Q. 65; 283 and Newhall (Ec. 6395 p. LXXVII) mention an ed. of this date, but probably erroneously. Heron's a. in ed. of 1802 is dated Oct. 1801.

79. The Letters of Junius. S. n. u. With notes and illustrations, historical, political, biographical, and critical; By Robert Heron, Esq. In two volumes. Vol. I. [II] London: Printed by W. Justins . . . for Harrison and Co. . . 1802. 2 v. O. pp. 4 l. I-69, 1 l. I-XLII, I-316; 4 l. I-466, 4 l.  $6\frac{1}{8} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ . 30 l. B. M. Ec. 4602

Contains a. c. d. pe. nf. i. and 68 letters, also essays on the eloquence of Junius, the authorship of the letters, claiming it for Dunning. There are also "prefatory observations" to the d. and pe. treating of the rise of parties and the history of the constitution. And with each letter he gives the circumstances that called it forth and a synopsis of its contents. In addition to notes of former ed., referred to in the text, there are numerous and extended notes not referred to but indicated by catch-words. Vol. I. has a po. of George III., engraved by Granger. The notes of J. E. are inserted at the foot of the page and referred to by *, †. Those of Heron are not referred to, but their places are marked by catch-words. They are separated from the text by a line.

80. The Letters of Junius. Second edition. London: 1804. 2 v. O. B.

B. says this "contains an addition of 70 pages to the preface of vol. I., and an appendix of 18 pages to vol. II." Bib. Cur. in N. and Q. 65; 283, says it is very scarce.

35. Thicknesse, Philip. Junius discovered. Lond: Fores, 1789. pp. 36. B.

In this pamphlet the letters are attributed to John Horne Tooke.

36. Junius's political axioms, addressed to twelve millions of people in Great Britain and Ireland. Lond: Griffiths, 1795. O.

An attack on measures of the administration; not by "Junius." Noticed in Mon. Rev., Lond., Jan. 1796. p. 82. Xb. 6106. B. gives the date (? 1770.)

37. Boyd, Hugh Macauley. The Indian observer. With life of the author . . . by Lawrence Dundas Campbell. London: Cadell, 1798, O.

In the preface the editor endeavors to show that Boyd wrote the letters. The Indian observer is contained in the miscellaneous works, v. 2. See British Critic, 13: 326. Xb. 1172.

38. Butler, C: Letters dated July, 1799, giving an account of the inquiries of John Wilkes and himself, relative to the authorship of Junius. B.

Republished with additions in Butler's reminiscences, 1822.

39. Letters about Junius. In European magazine. Lond., 1799, O. 36: 94. Xb. 2770

Two letters from L. D. Campbell and W: Woodfall, for and against Boyd's claim. Woodfall's letter is in Fitzgerald's Another Guess (Ec. 2982). p. 71.

40. Authorship of Junius. In The Scots magazine. Edinb., 1799. 61: 660, 734. Xb. 8020

Relates to the claim of Boyd.

41. Chalmers, George. An appendix to the supplemental apology for the believers in the supposititious Shakspeare-papers: being the documents for the opinion that Hugh McAuley Boyd wrote Junius's letters. London: Printed by Luke Hansard, for Thomas Egerton, 1800, O. pp. 4 l. 1-147, facsimile of handwriting. L. C.

"Has examined and confuted Maclean's pretensions."—BRITTON.

42. Authorship of the letters. In British critic. London: 1800. 16: 16. Xb. 1172

Criticises adversely Chalmers's claim for Boyd.

43. The miscellaneous works of Hugh Boyd, the author of the letters of Junius. With an account of his life and writings, by Lawrence Dundas Campbell. London: Printed for T. Cadell, junior, and W. Davies . . . by R. Noble . . . 1800. 2 v. O. pp. XX, 323; title, 1 l. 495. E. 1092

Has a portrait of Boyd. Attempts to prove that Boyd was the author of the letters. The appendix to the life contains two letters from J. Almon, in support of Boyd's claim, and an account of a controversy in the Morning Chronicle, in Aug. 1799, respecting the same.

44 Rodney, Thomas. Claims of Charles Lee. In Wilmington (Del.) Mirror, April 1803, and St. James's Chronicle. London: 1803.

Narrating a conversation with Lee in 1773. Rodney's claims for Lee were controverted in a letter published in The Recorder, (Richmond, Va.) of Mar. 19. 1803, by Ralph Wormeley, of Virginia, a friend of Lee, and supported by Daniel Carthy of North Carolina, in a series of papers in the Virginia Gazette.

45. [Girdlestone, Thomas.] Reasons for rejecting the presumptive evidence of Mr. Almon, that Mr. Hugh Boyd was the writer of Junius, with passages selected to prove the real author of the letters of Junius. London: Highley, 1807. O.

Mr. Almon's presumptive evidence is that prefixed to his edition of Junius published in 1806: the "real author" is Gen. Charles Lee. This was reprinted in "facts tending to prove," etc. See under 1813. B. gives the date 1808, and F. follows him. Noticed in British Critic, Lond., 1807. 30: 334. Xb. 1172. and in Mon. Rev., London, Aug. 1808. n. s. 56: 437. Xb. 6106

46. Hamilton, W: G. Parliamentary logick. Lond., 1808, O. Bg. 3775

In the preface, pp. XXVIII-XXXVII, the editor gives reasons against Hamilton's being the author.

47. Amusemen's of solitude. (Who was the real author of Junius's letters? [Attributing them to Lord Chatham.] Dialogue of the dead. The 1st Earl of Chatham and William Pitt.) Clonmel, 1809. O. B. M.

The dialogue is in Fitzgerald (Ec. 2982) p. 81. It has no reference to Junius.

48. [Fitzgerald, Rev.] Another guess at Junius and a dialogue . . . London: printed for T. Hookham, junior and E. T. Hookham . . . 1809, O. pp. 106. Ec. 2982

An attempt to prove that William Pitt, Earl of Chatham, was the author. The preface argues against the claim of Mr. Boyd and others. Noticed in Mon. Rev., London, Jan. 1810. 6: 108. Xb. 6106. A. gives the date 1819?

49. Hamilton's parliamentary logic. In Edinb. Rev. London: Oct. 1809. 15: 163-6. Xb 2538

Confirms the views of the editor of the parliamentary logick.

50. Dubois, E: Memoirs of Sir Philip Francis, K. B.

First printed in Monthly Mirror, May and June, 1810; reprinted in Taylor's Identity of Junius, 2d ed. pp. 17-31. Ec. 8755. Reviewed by D. in Athenæum, 1850. p. 941, and in Papers of a Critic. 2: 86*. Tp. 2300. On Dubois's alleged authorship of the Identity of Junius. See N. & Q. 2: 103, 258.

51. On the writings of Junius. In the Port Folio. New series. P., 1811, O. 6: 313-29. Xb. 7090

A criticism on the letters, and touches lightly on the authorship.

52. Draper, Sir W: Letters to Junius. Lond., 1812, O. B.

"In defense of the Earl of Granby and Gen. Gansell."

53 Woodfall's edition of the Letters of Junius. In Monthly Review. 2d series. London, 1813. 71: 367-79. Xb. 6106

Discusses the claims of several writers, with leaning towards Sackville.

54. One more conjecture, G. N. S. In Gent. mag. Lond. 82: 499*. Xb. 3318

Favors W: Petty, Earl of Shelburne. Reasons against this claim are given by Junior in Gent. Mag. 83: 3.

55. Blakeway, Rev. J: Brickdale An attempt to ascertain the author of the letters published under the signature of Junius . . . London: Published by Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown; and W. Eddowes. Shrewsbury, 1813, O. pp. 2 l. 1-72.

B. P. L.

A copy in L. C. has imprint, Shrewsbury: printed and sold by W. Eddowes, 1813. Advocates the claim of Tooke. Reviewed, with leaning towards Tooke, in Monthly Rev., Jan. 1817. 82: 68. Xb. 6106. B. gives "An attempt to ascertain the author of Junius. Lond., 1817. 8 vo." Is this an error, or a later ed. of Blakeway?

56. [Taylor, John.] A discovery of the author of the letters of Junius, founded on such evidence and illustrations, as explain all the mysterious circumstances and apparent contradictions, which have contributed to the concealment of this "most important secret of our times." London: Printed for Taylor and Hessey . . . 1813. O. pp. 139. L. C.

Is printed by T. Davison. Has no preface, contents or index; is not divided into chapters. Claims that Dr. Francis and Sir P. Francis were the authors of the letters. Noticed in Monthly Rev., Aug. 1813. p. 446. Xb. 6106, also in Gent. Mag. 83: 4640 and 86: 2, 539. The copy in L. C. has printed slip of errata at end.

57. [Glover, Richard.] Memoirs by a celebrated literary and political character. London: Murray, 1813, O.

———. Same. A new edition. London . . . 1814, O. pp. 1 l. I-XV, 1-164. Eb. 3432

The editor, Richard Duppa, regards these memoirs as furnishing evidence that Glover wrote the letters. See no. 65. This work is very often cited as Memoirs of, instead of, by. It is reviewed in Edin. Rev. 22: 475. Xb. 2538, and in Mon. Rev., Dec. 1815. 78: 366. Xb. 6106.

58. Foster, J: Woodfall's Junius. In Eclectic Review. London, Feb. 1813.

A JUNIUS BIBLIOGRAPHY.

BY JOHN EDMANDS.

Explanations of the plan are given on page 48.

I have just learned that Mr. Howard Edwards, of this city, has a large collection of Juniusana, and he has kindly allowed me access to it. To some titles which I have thus obtained or verified, I have appended his initials.

II. WORKS AND ARTICLES ABOUT JUNIUS.

81. Bonnecarrère, Guillaume de. Authorship of Junius's letters. In Moniteur. Paris, Aug. 16, 1816, and in translation in N. & Q., 1856. 13: 4 Xb. 6482
Argues in favor of H. M. Boyd. The letter is signed P.

82. A refutation of the claims preferred for Sir Philip Francis and Mr. Gibbon, to the letters of Junius. Reed. 1819. N. & Q. 13: 186. Xb. 6482

83. Chalmers, George. The author of Junius ascertained; from direct proofs, and a concatenation of circumstances: amounting to moral demonstration. A new edition, with a postscript, evincing that Boyd wrote Junius, and not Francis. London: Printed for T. Egerton . . . 1819, O. pp. I-VI, 1-148. Ec. 1612
The postscript fills pp. 117-148. The body of this agrees page for page with the 1st ed.

84. Junius unmasked. [Vignette.] A well-known, and most eminent literary character of the last century . . . London: Published by Effingham Wilson . . . 1819, O. pp. 1 l. 1-44, 2 l. Ec. 4675

The vignette is a portrait of Gibbon, without letter, engraved by Holl. It is printed by J. Johnson. It claims the authorship for Gibbon. It contains a table of the dates and signatures of the letters of Junius.

85. Who was Junius? In New monthly magazine. Lond., 1819. 11: 385, 510. Xb. 6390

Attempts no definite answer.

- 132. Coleridge, S. T. Notes on Junius. 1807. In his Literary remains. Lond., 1836, 8, 3 v. O. 248-255. Xd. 1828
———. ———. In his Complete works. N. Y., 1853, 7 v. D. v. 4 pp. 383-7. Xd. 1826
Sharp criticisms on the letters, with no attempt to determine the authorship.

133. Fisher, G. T. Aphorisms of Junius. London: T. Hookham. 1837, D. pp. 72. B. M.

134. Who was Junius? Notes and observations upon the letters of Junius. . . . London: Richard Glynn, Pall Mall. 1837, O. pp. I-IX, 1-26. H. E.

135. Junius Lord Chatham: being notes and observations upon the letters of Junius. . . . Second edition. London: James Ridgway. . . . 1838, O. pp. I-VII, III-IX, 1-26. H. E.

A reissue of "Who was Junius," with an additional preface.

136. Cooke, G. Wingrove. History of party. Lond., 1837, 3 v. O. E. 1895

In v. 3, pp. 118-53, he gives a summary of the claims of different writers.

137. The world we live in. In Blackwood's magazine. N. Y., 1837. 41: 469. Xb. 905

Presents the claims of Lachlan Maclean.

138. Flood, Warden. Memoirs of the life and correspondence of Henry Flood. . . . Dublin: Cumming. . . . 1838. pp. 81-3. Lf. 2170

139. Chatham, W. Pitt, Earl of. Correspondence. Lond., 1838, 4 v. 3: 444; 4: 48, 128. E. 1665

Contains matter of various character relating to the subject. See index.

140. Brougham, H. Lord. Sir Philip Francis. In Historical sketches of statesmen. 2d ser. Phil., 1839, 2 v. D. 1: 111-31. L. 1189e

Favors the claims of Francis.

141. Junius. In Blackwood's magazine. N. Y., 1839. 46: 405. Xb. 905

Of the claims of Grattan and Boyd.

142. Grey, C. E. Walpole and Junius. In Letters of Horace Walpole. Lond., 1840, 6 v. 6: XVI-XXVIII.

Reasons in favor of Walpole.

143. Simons, N. W., ed. Junius, "A letter to an honourable Brigadier General, commander in chief of his majesty's forces in Canada." London, 1760. Now first ascribed to Junius. To which is added, "A refutation of the letter, etc. By an officer." With incidental notices of Lords Townshend and Sackville, Sir Philip Francis, and others. London: W. Pickering. 1841, S. pp. 21. I-XXIV. 1-110. Ec. 8286

The title is given inaccurately by B. & F. In the introduction the editor attempts to show that the "Letter" was written by Junius, and notices the claims of several persons, with leaning against F. Pp. 72-110, contain Parallel Passages and Illustrative Notes. A. says a new ed. was issued in 1843. Claims to be reprinted verbatim; but there are such variations as these: "choose" for "chuse" "and risked" for "you risk'd," resentment for resentments, on p. 4. "Fleet st." for "Fleetstreet," in title.

144. Macaulay, T. B. Warren Hastings. In Edinb. rev. L., Oct., 1841. 74: 183-5. Xb. 2538

———. Same. Essays. N. Y., 1860. 5: 36.

Tp. 5408d

Supports the claim of Francis.

145. Junius. In Gent. mag. London, Mar., 1841. p. 227-41. Xb. 3318

A review of Simons, (no. 143). Opposes the claims of Francis, and inclines to the opinion that Walpole wrote them, and that Francis may have transcribed them.

146. Sir Philip Francis not Junius. In Gent. mag. London, Feb., 1842. pp. 166-8. Xb. 3318

147. Adams, C. F. Letters of Junius. In his Review of Chatham's correspondence. N. Am. rev. Bost., 1842. 55: 419-24. Xb. 6470

Characterizes Junius as a "bitter and dastardly writer," and makes no effort to identify him.

148. Jaques, John. The history of Junius and his works; and a review of the controversy respecting the identity of Junius. With an appendix, containing portraits and sketches by Junius. . . . London: Bell and Wood. 1843, D. pp. i-vi, 1 l. pp. 1-406. 1 l. Ec. 4544

Argues explicitly against the claims of Francis, Lloyd and others, and gives a sketch of Lord George Sackville, and the evidence of his authorship of the letters. Reviewed unfavorably to Sackville in Athenæum, 1844. p. 128. Xb. 336.

149. Cockburn, Sir G. Junius: the author determined. In his On Hannibal's route. . . . over the Alps. . . . Dublin: Printed by R. Hendrick. . . . 1845, O. Supports the claims for C. Lloyd. H. E.

150. Russell, Lord John. Defence of the Duke of Bedford against the attacks of Junius. In Correspondence of John Fourth Duke of Bedford. Lond., 1846, v. 3. pp. LXV-LXX. E. 684

151. Correspondence of Burke. In Gent. mag. London, Feb., 1847. pp. 121-6. Xb. 3318

Claims of Burke, Francis and Sackville.

152. Campbell, John, Lord. Lives of the Lord Chancellors. Phil., 1848, 7 v. O. L. 1389

In vol. 6 p. 281, he argues against the claims of Lord Loughborough (A. Wedderburn) and in favor of Francis.

153. Francis, Lady. Letter to Lord Campbell. In Lives of Lord chancellors. Lond., 1847. 6: 344.

———. Same. Phil., 1848. 6: 282. L. 1389

———. Same. In Wade's Junius. 2: LXXII. Ec. 4666

Maintains that Sir P. Francis was the author.

154. Britton, J. The authorship of the letters of Junius elucidated: including a biographical memoir of Lieutenant-colonel Isaac Barré, M. P. [vignette.] London: Printed for the author. . . . M. DCCC. XL. VIII, O. pp. 1-XLVIII. 1-96. 6¾x4, 34 l. Ec. 1172

The vignette represents a table upon which is a pile of books, lettered Junius, with dates; and a package of letters marked Woodfall, and other letters showing facsimiles of autograph of Junius, Barré and Dunning. In the center is an envelope, under the flap of which is an engraved portrait of Barré. Upon the flap is the Junius mask, surrounded by the motto, Stat nominis umbra.

Has a folded plate with portraits of John Dunning, Lord Ashburton—Lieut. Col. Barré—and Earl of Shelburne, afterwards Marquis of Lansdowne: painted by Sir Joshua Reynolds in 1784. Argues in favor of Col. Barré. Unfavorably reviewed by D. in Athenæum, 1848. pp. 717, 745. Xb. 336, and Papers of a critic. 2: 1-30, Tp. 2300.

———. Same. London: Printed for the author. . . . M. DCCC. XL. VIII, Q. pp. 1-XXXII, 1-68. 7⅞x5⅞. 35 l.

The plate, 9x6½, is not folded. The type is very similar, if not identical, to the O. ed. Both are printed by C. Whiting.

155. Brewster, Sir David. Authorship of Junius elucidated. In North Brit. rev. Edin., 1848. 10: 97-143. Xb. 6473

———. Same. Eclectic mag. N. Y., 1849. 16: 160-186. Xb. 2532

Review of Britton's work, favoring the claims of Maclean. Reviewed adversely by D. in The Athenæum, 1849. p. 685. Xb. 336, and in Papers of a critic. 2: 30-46. Tp. 2300.

A JUNIUS BIBLIOGRAPHY.

BY JOHN EDMANDS.

Explanations of the plan are given on page 48.

I have just learned that Mr. Howard Edwards, of this city, has a large collection of Juniusana, and he has kindly allowed me access to it. To some titles which I have thus obtained or verified, I have appended his initials.

DUTIES OF THE LIBRARIAN.

MUCH of the time of the principal Librarian is, of necessity, taken up in superintending the general affairs of the Library, and in doing work which specially devolves on him. It is, however, one of the most important parts of his duty to assist members in their search for books and for information in connection with their reading and study. And he desires all persons to feel and to exercise the utmost freedom in calling upon him for any assistance or advice which he may be thought to be able to give.

JOHN EDMANDS, Librarian.

A JUNIUS BIBLIOGRAPHY.

BY JOHN EDMANDS.

[CONCLUDED FROM PAGE 124.]

Explanations of the plan are given on page 48.

I learn that David F. Day, Esq., of Buffalo, has a large collection of Juniusana gathered during a course of years, as an aid in studying the question of authorship, and that he expects soon to publish a work giving the results of his studies, and presenting a new theory as to the authorship. He has kindly furnished me several titles and verifications.

II. WORKS AND ARTICLES ABOUT JUNIUS.

243. Junius's secret and "The Times" reviewer. By Quæstor. In N. & Q. Lond., 1871. 43: 489. Xb. 6482

Contains a facsimile of Walpole's paper with comments.

288. ———. More letters of Junius. In Athenæum, July 18, 1891. Xb. 336

Against the genuineness of four letters attributed to Junius.

289. Vincent, C. W. More letters of Junius. In Athenæum, July 25, 1891. Xb. 336

Agrees with Rae about these four letters; calls attention to a point of resemblance between handwriting of Francis and Junius, without ascending to the Franciscan theory.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

2. *The political contest: containing a series of letters between Junius and Sir William Draper; Also the whole of Junius's letters, to His Grace the D*** of G*****. Brought into one point of view.

When vice prevails, and impious men bear sway,
The post of honour is a private station.—Cato.

The second edition. London: Printed for F. Newbery, the West-End of St. Paul's church-yard. [Price one shilling.] O. pp. I-IV, 1-55.  $6\frac{7}{16}$ ,  $6\frac{5}{8} \times 3\frac{7}{16}$ . 39, 40 l. Y. U.

The, To the public of the 1st ed., is reproduced, line for line but compressed to make room for an a. which occupies a part of this and the following page, set in two paragraphs, and dated August 12, 1769. It contains the fourteen letters of the 1st ed., numbered also in two series. The date at the end of the first letter is April 21, instead of January 21, as in the 1st ed. In the most of the pages the text of this ed. agrees line for line with the 1st ed. There are variations on pp. 9, 11, 18, 28 and 53.

5. *The political contest; containing all the letters between Junius and Sir William Draper; Also the whole of Junius's letters, to the D*k*s of G*****n and B*****D. And his last letter on the rescue of a general officer:

When vice prevails, and impious men bear sway,
The post of honour is a private station.—Cato.

The third edition. Dublin: Printed for James Potts, at Swift's Head, in Dame-street. M DCC LXIX. O. pp. I-X, 1-108.  $6\frac{3}{16}$ — $6\frac{9}{16} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ . 38, 39, 40 l. Dr. G: Wood.

The first leaf is blank. P. III, has title. P. V, has half-title. P. VII, has the second paragraph, without heading, of the a. which appeared first in the 2d ed. P. IX, has the To the Public of the 1st ed., occupying 17 l. instead of 16, and p. X, has the first paragraph of the a. of the 1st ed. set in 16 l. instead of 15. It contains the fourteen letters of the 1st and 2d ed., numbered in the same way; also the seven letters of pt. II, occupying pp. 55-92. The most of these pp. agree, line for line, with pt. II. There are also three additional letters, the last of which is that dated Oct. 7, in J. E.

8. A collection of the letters of Atticus, Lucius, Junius, and others. With observations and notes. London: Printed for J. Almon, opposite Burlington house in Piccadilly . . . M. DCC. LXIX. [Price two shillings and sixpence.] O. pp. 184.

D. F. Day.

32 pp. being duplicated in the pagination. The last letter in the vol. is dated Sept. 18, 1769.

16a. A complete collection of Junius's letters with those of Sir William Draper. London: Printed for A. Thomson, Pater-noster row. MDCCLXX. pp. 1 l. 180. Day.

Contains 33 letters, the last dated Aug. 22, 1770, and printed on a separate sheet (pp. 179 and 180) in smaller type and pasted in. This is the third edition. That in B. M. pp. 177, being the second.

Political poems: A compilation. By Junius. 12mo. 1s. Printed for the compiler. Crowder.

From Gent. mag., May, 1772, p. 237. Rae (Ath., Jan. 24, 1841,) says J. sent a set of verses to Woodfall, of which the MS. is still in existence; that the poems above are not known to exist.

Daunt, W: J. O. Personal recollections of Daniel O'Connell. Lond., 1848. Day.

Gives O'Connell's opinion in favor of E. Burke.

Thoms, William J. Hannah Lightfoot. Queen Charlotte & the Chevalier d'Eon. Dr. Wilmot's Polish princess. London: W. G. Smith . . . 1867, O. pp. I-IV, 1-51. Ll. 3490

Chiefly reprinted from N. and Q. Bears slightly on the claim for Wilmot.

Who wrote "Junius's letters"? In Books and authors . . . Edin., 1868, S. pp. 89-93. Tt. 1010

Favors Francis.
